

PAT BENATAR CONCERT AT FAIR AT THE PNE CANCELLED

Vancouver, BC – The Pacific National Exhibition has received word that the final twelve dates of the Pat Benatar tour, including the September 2nd performance at the Fair at the PNE, have been cancelled.

Ms. Benatar announced the cancellations on her Facebook page, citing emergency surgery for her husband as the reason.

“Pat has a large fan base here in British Columbia, and anticipation for this concert was very high,” says PNE Creative Director Patrick Roberge. “This is a huge disappointment but I know that I speak for all of her Canadian fans when we wish her and her husband all the best.”

An announcement about a replacement artist will be made shortly. Reserved seat ticket holders will be offered a refund at point of purchase, Ticketleader.ca.

-more-

About the PNE

Owned by the City of Vancouver, the Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) is a healthy and vibrant non-profit charity organization dedicated to providing over 3 million visitors a year with first-class cultural, sporting and family entertainment events. Founded in 1910, the PNE operates from a 114-acre site at Hastings Park, a multi-facility venue in Vancouver where the organization operates four activity streams: an annual 15-day Fair, Playland Amusement Park, maintenance and care of the Hastings Park site and management of the site’s year-round facilities. These facilities are utilized to celebrate a variety of hockey, amateur sporting, music, community, social, cultural and commercial events throughout the year.

-30-

For more information, please contact:

Stacey Cheverie
Pacific National Exhibition
778.989.1469 (cell)
scheverie@lbgm.ca

Edward Tabakman
Pacific National Exhibition
604.306.0875 (cell)
etabakman@lbgm.ca