PNE INVESTS $4 MILLION IN FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT FOR 2007 FAIR!

Vancouver, BC – The Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) features the largest free, with fair admission, family entertainment package ever offered at a Canadian event at the 2007 Fair at the PNE.

Running August 18 to September 3 at Hastings Park, Vancouver, the 2007 Fair at the PNE will feature more exciting entertainment programming than ever!

“2006 was an extraordinary year for the PNE,” says President and CEO Michael McDaniel. “In the past decade the PNE has developed an international reputation for producing an exceptional level of custom programming for our guests as part of their admission to the fairgrounds. This commitment to sophisticated, custom, free family entertainment was one of the reasons we were selected as the Best Family Attraction in Canada in 2006. We aren’t resting on our laurels - we are committed to taking our entertainment package to a new level in 2007.”

The PNE is pleased and proud to present the 2007 Fair at the PNE entertainment lineup:

Summer Nights Concert Series

One of the best in the Fair’s history, this year’s concert series features Kenny Loggins, the legendary Tanya Tucker, the Pointer Sisters and Teen Idols with Mickey Dolenz of the Monkees – and that’s just a few of the talented artists who will be performing every night of the Fair starting at 7:30pm on the on the Rogers Amphitheatre stage. To see each concert, purchase a Fairtime Seasons Pass and get seventeen nights of great entertainment for one low price. Visit www.pne.ca for more information. *NEW FOR 2007

KC Bear's Street Party

Want to meet some of the "stars" of the Toontastic Celebration Parade? Join the PNE's own KC Bear for a festive street party featuring special guests and your favourite Toontastic cartoon characters. You only need to bring your camera – we'll provide the smiles. *NEW FOR 2007

Red Robinson's Talent Showdown

The PNE is proud to present BC's premiere Talent Showdown. Hosted by the legendary Red Robinson himself, this all-new program features a different round of semi-finalists performing each day and an all ages final judged by top professionals with a grand prize of $10,000 up for grabs. *NEW FOR 2007

Spirit Plaza

Located in the centre of the Fairgrounds, this exciting new entertainment hub will feature the debut of the Flying Canucks with present and future Olympians performing thrilling aerial, acrobatic skiing, snowboarding and new-school freestyle "Big Air" maneuvers on a man-made ski jump. These athletes defy gravity to the high-energy beats of a dynamic soundtrack. Guests can stay to the end of the show for an opportunity to meet the Flying Canucks. Spirit Plaza is also home to the popular Masque Beer Garden, where you can stop by for a cool, frosty drink and a little taste of Bourbon Street and enjoy twenty-five of BC's top bands. Another featured attraction in Spirit Plaza is the brand new Westcoast Wheel, the PNE's spectacular new family Ferris Wheel style ride that will offer breathtaking views of the Fairgrounds from its 90 foot summit. *NEW FOR 2007

Peking Acrobats

For the first time ever at the Fair at the PNE, the Peking Acrobats will perform treacherous wire walking, trick cycling, precision tumbling and amazing displays of contortion, flexibility and control. See all of their tricks from the precarious pagoda of chairs to astonishing feats of juggling dexterity and balance. See the Peking Acrobats at 12:00pm, 2:00pm and 4:00pm in the Garden Auditorium (no Show August 28). *NEW FOR 2007

Salute to Elvis – The 50th Anniversary of the King at the PNE!

On August 31, 1957, Elvis Presley came to PNE; one of only three dates he ever played outside of the United States. The King performed at Empire Stadium, drawing the largest attendance of his North American tour. Fifty years later, on August 31, 2007, we pay tribute to Elvis, the man who started it all. Award-winning tribute artists, Steve Elliott and Wally Tiemer bring their talented shows to the Fair at the PNE at the Rogers Amphitheatre for one glorious night of stories, remembrances, and good old rock 'n roll. Red Robinson, who exceed the original concert, will be there with Elvis' best friend, Joe Esposito, as they both relate stories of their friendship with Elvis. This is a one-night, one-time only anniversary celebration of Elvis Presley's incredible life and career. *NEW FOR 2007

Wheels of Steel featuring the Outlaws of Motorsports

Wheels of Steel is the most exciting and dramatic motorsports event the Fair at the PNE has ever produced. Wheels of Steel combines flying freestyle motorbikes, racing quads, crazy monster trucks, unbelievable fire effects and live DJ music to create a music and metal masterpiece. From the first full contact battle of the quads in Canada, to synchronized freestyle motocross and the Globe of Death, this is one show you won't want to miss. 2:00pm, 4:30pm, 6:30pm and 9:00pm every day of the Fair in the Motorsport Stadium. *NEW FOR 2007

The Card Stacker

The PNE is thrilled to welcome Bryan Berg, Guinness World Record holder in card stacking. Berg, the acknowledged inventor of card stacking on the grand scale is a self-taught artist. Berg uses no tape, glue, or other tricks in his work. Berg will create a massive sculpture out of playing cards during the 17-day Fair. *NEW FOR 2007

Returning Favourites

Everyone's beloved Fair favourites, including the Iams Superdogs in "Simply Woofy", the Pig Races, Art Cars, the Pacific Spirit Horse Show and the Dal Richards Orchestra are all back for another year of entertainment.

Also back by popular demand are the award-winning Rollin' Thunder, the Fair at the PNE's high energy boot kicking musical nightly finale; Interactive Art at Festival Square; the Neighbourhood Showcase featuring local community groups of dynamic dancers, exhilarating musicians and special guests; and Street Stars, the street entertainer series featuring, for the first time in 2007, El Gleno Grande and his equestrian antics, and the laugh-out loud comedy of OzStar Airlines, the amazing Human Fountain.

Illusions and Beyond returns for another magical year at the Fair at the PNE with a brand new show. Combining magic, comedy and unbelievable new illusions, this show promises to thrill the entire family. High Dive Comedy Quest has Sinbad and his band of Gold Seekers searching for the fabled Golden Pineapple. Their search has them flipping, flying and tumbling through the air, reaching speeds of over 88km per hour from heights reaching 80 feet.

Also returning for 2007 is the 3rd Annual PNE Sandsculpture Competition. Featuring sand sculpture artists from around the world competing for cash prizes, this spectacular event is rapidly becoming one of the most popular at the Fair. Watch the competition unfold along historic Miller Drive each day of the Fair.

All of these great attractions are free with admission to the 2007 Fair at the PNE.

Owned by the City of Vancouver, the Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) is a healthy and vibrant non-profit charity organization dedicated to providing over 3 million visitors a year with first-class cultural, sporting and family entertainment events. Founded in 1910, the PNE operates from a 114-acre site at Hastings Park, a multi-facility venue in Vancouver where the organization operates four activity streams: an annual 17-day Fair, Playland Amusement Park, maintenance and care of the Hastings Park site and management of the site's year-round facilities. These facilities are utilized to celebrate a variety of hockey, amateur sporting, music, community, social, cultural and commercial events throughout the year.
