

PLAYLAND OPEN DAILY STARTING SATURDAY, JUNE 14

June 13, 2014

Vancouver, BC – In order to accommodate families during school closures, Playland at the PNE will open its gates every day beginning this Saturday, June 14. Playland offers parents a safe, fun way for their children to spend the day during school closures.

“With summer vacation starting two weeks early, parents will be looking for ways to keep their children busy and entertained,” says PNE spokesperson Laura Ballance. “We are officially starting our full-time season this Saturday to accommodate the school closures and the new demand.”

As one of Vancouver’s most beloved family friendly destinations, Playland offers guests over 30 rides and attractions, including the new Rock-N-Cars! Thrill-seekers will love the hair-raising rides including Atmosfear, Hellevator and the iconic 1958 Wooden Roller Coaster. More fun can be had at the Midway, the Climbing Wall, Pacific Adventure Golf and the Haunted Mansion.

About the PNE:

Owned by the City of Vancouver, the Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) is a healthy and vibrant non-profit charity organization dedicated to providing over 3 million visitors a year with first-class cultural, sporting and family entertainment events. Founded in 1910, the PNE operates from a 114-acre site at Hastings Park, a multi-facility venue in Vancouver where the organization operates four activity streams: an annual 15-day Fair, Playland Amusement Park, maintenance and care of the Hastings Park site and management of the site’s year-round facilities. These facilities are utilized to celebrate a variety of hockey, amateur sporting, music, community, social, cultural and commercial events throughout the year.
