PNE TO UNVEIL NEW NIGHT TIME FINALE

For Immediate Release

Vancouver, B.C.: The 2006 Fair at the PNE will feature a brand new nightly finale – Rollin' Thunder. Each night of the Fair guests will be treated to an original production, designed exclusively for the Fair at the PNE.

"We wanted to continue with the tradition of exceptional, custom programming that PNE fairgoers have become accustomed to," says PNE Creative Director Patrick Roberge. "Rollin' Thunder is our most technically aggressive project to date, and we are very excited about unveiling it for PNE Fair guests."

From the rumble of a convoy to the lightning speed of a fiddle reel – get ready for a high-energy boot kicking nightly musical finale. Rollin' Thunder will explode each night of the Fair with powerful theatrical special effects including wild pianos, chainsaws, and unbelievable pyrotechnics.

"This is a show that can't be seen anywhere else in North America," says Roberge.

The Pacific National Exhibition has a history of awe-inspiring finale attractions, and has picked up numerous national and international entertainment awards for its finale show events. Rollin' Thunder promises to build on that tradition.
