September 4, 2018

Vancouver, B.C.: One of British Columbia's most beloved annual events came to a close on Monday evening, as The Fair at the PNE wrapped its run for the 2018 season. One of the most highly anticipated events of the year, the 2018 Fair at the PNE welcomed over 705,000 guests through its gates, from August 18th to September 3rd.

This year saw the celebration of four iconic PNE institutions: the 40th Anniversary of President's Choice SuperDogs™, the 50th Anniversary of the opening of the Pacific Coliseum, the 50th anniversary of the mini donut inventor, Those Little Donuts, and the 60th Anniversary of Playland's Wooden Roller Coaster.

"The Fair at the PNE is a family-focused event for generations of British Columbians and every year our goal is to provide a memorable experience for guests of all ages," says the PNE's President and CEO, Shelley Frost. "Thanks to a dynamic entertainment lineup that is both fun and family-friendly, we've successfully delivered on our mission of providing priceless memories to the thousands of guests who came in from across the lower mainland and throughout the province and world."

An intriguing array of gastronomic delights, a fantastic entertainment line-up and a sensational concert repertoire made this year one of the best in the PNE's recent history. The ever-popular Summer Night Concerts featured an exciting blend of a diverse range of music, spanning Country, R&B, Pop, Rock, and 80's and 90's favourites, including Boyz II Men, Chicago, Dean Brody and Cyndi Lauper.

Alongside returning favourites such as the President's Choice SuperDogs™, the 2018 Fair at the PNE thrilled its audiences with new exhibits and attractions never seen before. Newly introduced this year to The Fair at the PNE, the Action Sports World Tour, featuring professional skateboarders and BMX riders, and Knights of Valour, a thrilling show of horsemanship, chivalry and jousting proved hugely successful. The new POPnology™ exhibit at Rollerland presented some of the greatest works of pop culture-inspired technology, innovation and imagination. Guests of The Fair took in a variety of interactive features, such as the world's first 3D printed car, futuristic musical instrument technology, and the Sojourner Rover and the Opportunity Rover from NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory.

Commemorating the Pacific Coliseum's 50th Anniversary, renowned animator and artist, Ryan 'ARCY' Christenson was commissioned to create 15 live mural art masterpieces on-site in his paint-splashed style of large street art. Another hit with Fairgoers was The Street of Dreams, a display of 40 classic, hot rods and muscle cars presented by Canada's largest custom and hot rod company, 360 Fabrication, out of Abbotsford, BC.

Steeped in years of tradition, the PNE Prize Home lottery marked its 84th birthday this year, and a gorgeous West Coast modern, Net Zero Ready home will be awarded to a lucky grand prize draw winner. The Draw will be held onsite at the PNE Prize Home on Monday, September 10th at 6:30pm, and working media are invited to attend. This luxury house will be relocated to a lot overlooking the Okanagan Lake in beautiful Naramata. Valued at over $1.8 million, the 2018 PNE Prize home is designed and built by Freeport Industries, and features an indoor luxury elevator, a dry sauna, the latest in home theatre and electronics, innovative smart home technology, a robotic lawn mower and state-of-the-art appliances. The house is fully furnished with modern and luxurious accessories and décor by Lane Home Furnishings.

The Fair at the PNE remains British Columbia's largest ticketed event, with this year's attendance of 705,381 (2017 Fair attendance: 722,466; 2016 Fair attendance: 712,367). While smoky skies and air quality advisories kept some guests indoors during the first week, attendance held strong throughout the second week, driving some of the busiest days in Fair history.

With a successful conclusion of the 2018 Fair, plans for next year's Fair are well underway to ensure an unforgettable experience for hundreds of thousands of British Columbians and guests to Vancouver.
