

WILLIAMS LAKE RESIDENT WINS 87TH ANNUAL PNE PRIZE HOME

For Immediate Release
September 13, 2021

Vancouver, B.C. – The Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) awarded the 87th Annual PNE Prize Home to Williams Lake resident Connie Thompson.

“We’re so excited and honoured to announce Connie as the winner of this year’s PNE Prize Home draw,” says Shelley Frost, President and CEO of the Pacific National Exhibition. “It’s incredibly exciting for us to have the 2021 Home built in the Lower Mainland. On behalf of the entire PNE extended family, congratulations to Connie – the proud new owner of this luxurious home.”

With a total prize package valued at $1.8 million, this year’s home is a jaw-dropping energy-efficient home built by Distrikt Homes of Langley. Located just minutes from the beautiful surrounding area beaches and local amenities in South Surrey, the 2021 Home was built off the PNE fairgrounds for the first time in the PNE Prize Home’s 87-year history.

This year, more than 733,000 tickets were sold to guests of the Fair, as well as by phone and online. Proceeds from the lottery support a variety of non-profit programs at the Pacific National Exhibition, including agriculture, community, educational incentives, arts and a large number of other local efforts.

About the PNE:

Owned by the City of Vancouver, the Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) is a healthy and vibrant non-profit organization dedicated to providing over 3 million visitors a year with first-class cultural, sporting and family entertainment events. Founded in 1910, the PNE operates from a 114-acre site at Hastings Park, a multi-facility venue in Vancouver where the organization operates four activity streams: an annual 15-day Fair, Playland Amusement Park, maintenance and care of the Hastings Park site and management of the site's year-round facilities. These facilities are utilized to celebrate a variety of hockey, amateur sporting, music, community, social, cultural and commercial events throughout the year.
