Fright Nights 2022 Features Seven Terrifying Haunted Houses

Don't miss the chance to experience one of the most popular houses in Fright Nights history, Hollywood Horrors, where killers stalk the halls patiently awaiting victims. This is the last chance to experience this house, as it will retire at the end of Fright Nights 2022. From a dark corner, a bladed glove glistens in the flickering light. Hidden in the shadows lies a cannibalistic genius. The sound of a rusty chainsaw echoes through the hallways of Hollywood Horrors.

Another highly anticipated haunted house is The Bloodshed. This family of mutated murderers and sadistic aberrations feed on your fear, and your insides. The house foundation is built on the blood and bones of their victims. They'll kidnap and mutilate anyone who dares visit The Bloodshed. Enter at your own risk!

Other houses for 2022 include:

- Darkness
- Fear
- Materia Medica
- Keepers Doll Factory
- Haunted Mansion

Due to the overwhelming demand and to ensure a quality guest experience, Fright Nights is putting a cap on the number of tickets sold per day. Tickets must be purchased for a specific date. Event nights have limited availability and may sell out.

Admission includes unlimited access to all seven haunted houses, shows and 19 rides. (There is an additional charge for the Revelation).
