

The PNE FAIR 4-H Ambassador Program is Back at The PNE FAIR this Year!

There is an opportunity for senior members in the 4-H programs to work with the 4-H BC Ambassadors at the PNE Fair. Applications will be accepted from all senior 4-H members in the province. Selections will be made based on the most suitable applicants and quotas per district.

The purpose of the PNE Fair 4-H Ambassador Program is:

- To promote awareness about 4-H
- To educate the urban public about BC agriculture and livestock care
- To help teach 4-H members skills relating to promotions and public relation

Application Requirements

- Must be a senior 4-H member and have passed their Junior Proficiency exam
- Complete PNE Fair Ambassador Application Form
- Copy of completed and signed PNE Fair Parent Release & Medical Information Form

Ambassadors will receive:

- PNE Fair 4-H Ambassador team shirt
- Instruction on promotion and public relations

PNE Fair Ambassadors will have a variety of responsibilities at the PNE Fair including managing special fun events and Talk to the Animals stations around the Fair, leading special ceremonies and assisting shows ringside. PNE Fair Ambassador duties can be a member's only activity at the Fair or duties could work around a member's show schedule. It will be a busy group with lots of fun and teamwork included! For outlying areas, the BC Youth in Agriculture Foundation Funding is available to assist with travel expenses.

To apply, complete the requirements above and send application to:
