Vancouver, B.C. – The Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) is thrilled to announce that, after the overwhelming reception to last year’s PNE Prize Home location, it will be returning to Langley for 2023!

“We had thousands of people from all over the Lower Mainland, British Columbia and Canada view last year’s PNE Prize Home. With so much public interest, it was an easy decision bringing the PNE Prize Home back to the beautiful city of Langley this year,” says PNE spokesperson Laura Ballance. “For almost 90 years, the PNE has made people from all walks of life smile, clap their hands and jump for joy by announcing they’ve won the Prize Home Lottery. In September, another person will have a similar reaction when they learn they’re the winner of this year’s amazing Prize Home in Langley.”

2023 PNE Prize Home a Stunning Masterpiece

This year’s Grand Prize is a luxurious fully furnished Craftsman dream home with Hygge-inspired interior accents built by Lanstone Homes in collaboration with Wesmont Homes.

The 2023 PNE Prize Home is 3,773 sq ft of lavish living space spanning with a Scandinavian aesthetic. Designed by Brown & Co and furnished by Yaletown Interiors, it offers five bedrooms and 5.5 bathrooms, a modern kitchen with Fisher & Paykel appliances, a rec room and a listening lounge. The home also includes a one bedroom, one-bathroom legal basement suite. The home is built to Step 3 BC Energy standards and is fully electric featuring a cold climate heat pump system. The winner will also receive a Husqvarna landscape package including an Automower. The total value of the PNE Grand Prize Package is $2.3 million.

The 2023 Prize Home is already constructed on its Langley property and will be available for tours from July 15 – September 4, 2023 (Opening Friday and Saturday and then all Saturdays until Labour Day Weekend 10:00am – 2:00pm). Free tour tickets will be available through TicketLeader in June.

“Lanstone Homes have a proud tradition of being a part of some of the most well thought of developments in the Fraser Valley” says Lanson Foster from Lanstone Homes. “To build such a home to be part of the beloved Prize Home Lottery program is a great honour, and we know that PNE fans as well as the lucky Prize Home winner will be welcomed into this family-friendly community in Langley.”

In addition to the Grand Prize Package, ticket purchasers have the chance to win 1-of-3 vehicles from Chevrolet, 1-of-2 vehicles from Cadillac, 1-of-2 seven-day cruises to Mexico or the Caribbean from Holland America Group along with $1500 cash, a travel-trailer from Woody’s RV World, a Harley-Davidson motorcycle from Trev Deeley Motorcycles, and a hot tub package from Beachcomber Hot Tubs Group. Four Early Bird draws will take place throughout the summer, with ticket purchasers eligible to win 1 of 3 seven-day cruise packages to Europe, Canada and New England or Alaska from Holland America Group and a Chevrolet Bolt EV.

About the PNE:

Owned by the City of Vancouver, the Pacific National Exhibition (PNE) is a healthy and vibrant non-profit organization dedicated to providing over 3 million visitors a year with first-class cultural, sporting and family entertainment events. Founded in 1910, the PNE operates from a 114-acre site at Hastings Park, a multi-facility venue in Vancouver where the organization operates four activity streams: an annual 15-day Fair, Playland Amusement Park, maintenance and care of the Hastings Park site and management of the site’s year-round facilities. These facilities are utilized to celebrate a variety of hockey, amateur sporting, music, community, social, cultural and commercial events throughout the year.

About Lanstone Homes:

Lanstone Homes is a boutique company that prides itself on personalized care by honouring the values of tradition, outstanding design and craftsmanship. A second-generation home builder, born and raised in the Langley area, Lanson Foster developed his keen understanding of construction on hundreds of home sites. Now over 30 years later, Lanstone Homes embodies the ideas of community and neighbourhood through thoughtful planning and design.
